If we find that we made a mistake on your statement, you will not have to pay any interest charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay interest charges and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due.
If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within ten days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you have a question about your statement. And, we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. We must tell anyone we report you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is. If we don't follow these rules we can't collect the first $50 of the questioned amount, even if your statement was correct.
